

SUMMER CAMP

KIDS TAKE OVER THE GALLERY

Vancouver
Artgallery

JULY 18–22, 2022
9 AM–2:30 PM

MONDAY JULY 18

SCULPTING THE ORDINARY INTO THE EXTRAORDINARY

IN GALLERY

Explore the exhibition Kids Take Over with our team of Art Educators.

WORKSHOP

Experiment with shape and texture using air-dry clay inspired by Gathie Falk's 30 Grapefruit (1970).

WORKSHOP

Create prints with plasticine inspired by stonecut printing processes used in the work of Pitseolak Ashoona.

TUESDAY JULY 19

TRANSFORMING TEXTILES AND TEXT

IN GALLERY

Look, think and wonder in the Gallery as we return to the exhibition Kids Take Over to find new ways of creating spaces and stories.

WORKSHOP

Inspired by Evelyn Roth's installation Environment for Reading Recycled from 110 Sweaters (1974), add to a large-scale collaborative weaving project and learn to knit your own bookmark.

WORKSHOP

Who and what are included in the books that you read? Who and what are left out? Transform old history books to create artworks that tell the other side of a story, inspired by Chantal Gibson's sculptures and poetry.

WEDNESDAY JULY 20

POSING AND PAINTING

IN GALLERY

Explore the exhibition Uninvited: Canadian Women Artists in the Modern Moment with our team of Art Educators.

WORKSHOP

Using a mirror, experiment with drawing your face as you study your own unique facial features, expressions and gestures that make you, you.

Celebrate what makes you unique by adding paint and colour to express your personality.

THURSDAY JULY 21

EVERY PHOTOGRAPH TELLS A STORY

WORKSHOP

Get a behind-the-scenes look at the Gallery's Photography Studio with photographer Ian Lefebvre.

WORKSHOP

Transform a black and white photo into a unique and expressive image using oil pastels, inspired by Evan Lee's paintings.

WORKSHOP

Focusing on the importance of the gaze, pose and props to tell a story, you will become the photographer, director, lighting supervisor and model to create unique self-portraits using found objects, flashlights and fabric.

FRIDAY JULY 22

SHARING OUR STORIES: EXHIBITION DAY

WORKSHOP

Learn about how to care for your artworks in the Gallery's Conservation Lab with our Museum Services and Conservation teams.

WORKSHOP

Discover new ways of displaying and lighting your artworks with our team of expert Preparators.

INSTALLATION

Take over the Gallery's 4th Floor with your very own art exhibition.

EXHIBITION

Share the work that you made this week with your family.